

ET A very candid writer in the Tecumseh Democrat, on the 'admission' question, remarks, "To take up arms against the United States, and forcibly occupy the country, is sound well in history, and suit the gallantry of warriors, whose love of danger is only surpassed by their love to stay at home and guard the women and children, when peril is truly apprehended. Our Bobadilla may bluster and talk; the genuine heroes of Michigan will take a different course to regain her rights. It is one of peace, not of war; it is one of law, not of force; it is one that will more surely produce the restoration of jurisdiction, if the immutable laws of the land entitle us to it; and that is, by complying with the requisitions of congress, and placing ourselves in that sovereign relation to sister states that will entitle us to enter the supreme court, and demand our rights under the solemn compact of 1787."

ET We ask pardon of our fair readers—our numerous patrons must have sisters, daughters, wives, who read—we ask their pardon, we say, for not having published—why yes, we have published poetry—some very nice, too, written with delicate fingers; but for any delinquency, it is no more than fair that we apologize to the fair—we ask pardon, we say, but still we are not to blame for it, as those who offend in such matters have never communicated the desired information, during all the seven weeks we have printed; and we printers always do such work without any remuneration, other than the consolation of having given pleasure to the parties concerned, and a great many fair readers beside, to whom our columns have hitherto, in this particular, been void of interest—yet, for the defalcation, small as it may seem in the eyes of some of the gentry, who have no regard to the taste of the better half of creation, we ask forgiveness—for never having, in all this time that fifty might have been registered,—of the ladies, we mean,—still our good intentions should claim some little allowance, this being, besides, rather a bachelor country, where eastern practices and Dr. Franklin's advice are not enough regarded—of the fair, as we said before—but to think of the close scrutinizing search through our sheet, week after week, turning it inside out, and then the anxious look, at the bottom, top and through all the columns; and the disappointment, with the long drawn sigh following—we ask pardon—but all proof of sincerity is in reform, and there being none domestic, that we know of, and having no assurance to warrant us in a promise of any for the future, we avail ourselves of our exchange papers, from abroad, to begin with.—But for the past, we say, as before, we ask pardon of the fair, for never having inserted any—no, not any—MARRIAGES!

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.

The volunteers from the State of Tennessee have refused to march into Florida; the cause assigned I did not learn. Their indisposition to march may be owing to the fear which prevails with regard to the climate, as there have been some disputes in relation to rank—certainly, they have refused to go.

It is thought the President will reach the Hermitage by the 5th inst. His spirits are represented as unusually buoyant, and his health excellent.

Notwithstanding it was supposed the regiment of dragoons would be filled at once, the business of recruiting goes slowly on. Men cannot be procured in this country as during the late war.

I venture to affirm, that with all the efforts made at the different rendezvous in this country, there are not fifty men enlisted a month. And for this dragoon service which was thought so attractive to young and adventurous, there have not been sixty men obtained. Texas can procure her volunteer soldiers by thousands.

From the N. Y. Times, Aug. 4.

Important from the State of Tennessee, received yesterday by the steamer packet Columbia, bring us the unpleasant intelligence of the renewal of Creek hostilities.

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENTS.

Standard of Union Extra.

July 27th.

A NEW WAR!!

We regret to announce to our fellow citizens, that the Creek Indians have renewed the war.

On Sunday last, a party of the hostiles crossed the Chattahoochee, and attacked our troops at Fort McCarty, and repulsed them, with the loss of several killed and wounded.

We are without particulars, but rumour estimates our loss in killed from five to nine.

The following extract of a letter from a friend in Columbus of the 26th inst. leaves no doubt that there yet is much and hard fighting to be done.

"News has just reached us, that a small party of Indians came over to the Georgia side, on yesterday, a few miles above Roanoke, and attacked a small body of our men stationed there, and routed them. Five white men are said to be killed, and several wounded.

"I have not had the particulars. I think you may rest assured, public opinion to the contrary notwithstanding, that the war is not yet closed."

We learn that General Sanford has taken the most vigorous means to reinforce our troops in the neighborhood of Roanoke and Fort McCarty, and for acting efficiently against the Indians. He is going in person with all his disposable force in pursuit of the enemy.

Where is Gen. Jomp? and how does it happen that he has closed the door, and disbanded the army, while the country is full of hostile savages?

Augusta, July 29.—We learn by a gentleman arrived from Columbus on Wednesday evening, that a battle was fought in Stewart county, near Fort McCarty, about twenty-eight miles below Columbus, between a party of about 250 hostile Creeks, and a party of two companies of Georgia troops, in all about 90 men—in which the latter was defeated, it is stated, with five killed. On the part of the Indians seven were found dead, and it is supposed about 30 were killed in all. As soon as the news reached General Sanford, he immediately dispatched six companies, himself at the head, with the determination of clearing them out of the country before he returned.

The gentleman from whom we gain this information, also states, that there is not the least danger to be apprehended by those travelling through the nation by the stage route—as at every stand there is a strong military force, and guards accompany the stage from one post to another.

From the Globe.

Extract of a letter from Lieut. B. S. ROBERTS, 1st Regiment of Dragoons, commanding duty at Fort Des Moines, to the Secretary of War, dated 14th July, 1836.

"I see by reports in the eastern papers, that a letter has been received at this War Department stating that Black Hawk has again become hostile, and has circulated the warpath belt among the western Indians, and considering it my duty to inform the Department that the report is without the slightest foundation. Black Hawk and his family are at this time in their lodge within two hundred yards of my quarters, and have been, for the last year, encompassed within five miles of the post. He has only been absent, during this time, five or six weeks, in the Des Moines river, near Keokuk town, raising corn. The old man is becoming very infirm, and should he be disposed, would not be able to carry on another war against the whites. He, however, is perfectly conquered, and knows too well the force of the whites, to involve his own or any other nation in war with them."

Illinois.—The election of members of congress for this state has resulted in the success of the republican ticket. Such at all events would seem to be the case, if the following paragraph is an indication:

From the Chicago, (Illinois) American, a Harrison print.

"WE HAVE MET THE ENEMY AND WE ARE THEIRS."

It is really a "melancholly truth," that though to a "certain extent difficulties did exist in the former calm and tranquil ranks of the democratic body," the opposition have been sorely discomfited!! Peter Pruyne (it is so decreed) is to misrepresent us in the senate; and for the names of his political coadjutors in the legislative assemblies of the state, see the published returns of the election. We are beaten. The causes that we could assign of our defeat, are various and conclusive. In the first place, the most prominent and obvious reason is that we could offer to the calm consideration of our readers, is that which of all others is generally least noticed or complained of—viz: the want of a sufficient number of legal voters, whereby we could not obtain the majority, and were consequently defeated.

From the Chicago Democrat, we learn that Mr. May, majority, the democratic candidate, is 1000 in Chicago district. This result, will most assuredly be published by the white papers, as an indication of the rising prosperity of Gen. Harrison!—Detroit Free Press.

NEW-ORLEANS, July 18.

By the schr. Julius Cesar, which arrived yesterday from Texas, we have information that renders it very doubtful whether the Mexican army will really prosecute further operations for the present at least against Texas.

From Texas spies sent for the purpose of reconnoitering the enemy, it is ascertained that the Mexican army has not advanced, and that its numbers are continually diminishing by desertion.

The Texians are in "fine spirits" and have no lack of arms, ammunition and provision, and with force sufficient to repulse the invaders with great slaughter. Santa Anna had solicited by letter the amicable interposition of Gen. Jackson, and had conveyed to the Mexican Government his opinion, that the conquest of Texas was impossible, and that the independence of Texas should be recognized.

The schr. Brutus, Capt. Hurd, was at Matamoros, blockaded by the Mexican brig of war Vencedor del Alamo, but would soon be relieved by the schr. Invincible, Union and other vessels that had proceeded there in tow of the steamboat Ocean, for the purpose of capturing the brig. The steamboat was laden with volunteers, and for her protection there was raised a breastwork of cotton bales.

The Mexican brig will in all probability fall a capture to the Texians.

It seems that the Vencedor has been despatched from Vera Cruz, in order to protect the schooner Cumachee, Fanny Butler and Watchman, which were stored with provisions for the Mexicans. Finding that the Texians had already intercepted the schooner, and appropriated their cargoes to their own use, he very wisely proceeded to take, if possible, what Texian vessels might fall in her way. It may not, however, prove a judicious step.

From all the information received, and which we believe to be substantially correct, we are firmly of the opinion that the Mexicans will suspend active hostilities against the Texans for the summer, and we shall not prove very bad prophets if it should not turn out, that their troops will be entirely withdrawn from the limits of Texas, and the independence of this Republic fully secured.

NOTES ON WISCONSIN TERRITORY, with a map by Lieut. Albert M. Lea, of the U. S. Dragoons. The design of this work is to place in the reach of the public, correct information in regard to a very interesting portion of the western country, especially of that part known as the "Iowa District," one of the divisions of the new Territory of Wisconsin. The above work is for sale at the Detroit Bookstore, price $1. L. L. MORSE, Detroit, August 13, 1836. 1y7

FIRE!! FIRE!! FIRE!!—The

Kalamazoo Mutual Insurance Company, incorporated in 1834, is prepared to execute policies for any amount, for the purpose of insurance against fire. To that part of the community who have never witnessed the result of the mutual insurance system, it may be necessary to say, that wherever it has been adopted, it has invariably succeeded beyond the sanguine anticipations of its friends. When it is considered that the institution is, in effect, but a voluntary association of individuals, pledged to bear each other's losses in just and equitable proportions—that no combination of wealth or money-making scheme can possibly influence its operations or divert it from its legitimate and proper course, a prudent and common foresight will prompt to an immediate connection with it.

That facilities for becoming members of the association may be within the reach of every person, agents are or will be appointed in all the principal towns and villages in the state, to whom application may be made whenever insurance is required. A prompt and judicious attention to duty, on the part of agents, will uniformly be expected, as upon this alone depends in a great degree the prosperity and success of the company. They are also desired to spread useful and correct information relative to the nature, prospects and operations of the institution as well as to promote its interests and give the public mind a full and correct understanding on the subject.

Postmasters are requested to forward the names of responsible persons to act as agents in towns where appointments have not already been made. The following are some of the agents of the company:

J. M. Howard, Detroit; A. Felch, Monroe; R. Manning, F. Darrow, Pontiac; A. N. Hart, Lapeer; Wm. R. Thompson, Ann Arbor; Daniel Coleman, Jacksonburgh; C. D. Smith, Marshall; Robert Clark, White Pigeon; J. A. Smith, Schoolcraft; C. Lowell, Kalamazoo; R. Ransom, Conestoga; A. B. Rawlin, Romeo; Cephas A. Smith, Battle Creek.
